An efficient method for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by making a sales web page for the new e book, but don't embrace a price on that page. As an alternative, add various links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on every page. Be certain that your sales copy is exactly the identical on each web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, if you happen to've written a e book that solves a problem or presents a brand new method, your book will bring in both traffic and profits.
