An effective approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already bought an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion by way of price. Do that by creating a gross sales page for the brand new e-book, but don't include a price on that page. One other strategy is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is exactly the similar on each page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum value is.

Finally, should you've written a e-book that solves a downside or presents a brand new method, your e book will bring in both traffic and profits.
