If these customers have already bought an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a sales page for the new guide, but don't embrace a worth on that page. Instead, add a number of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with different costs on each page. Be sure your gross sales copy is precisely the similar on each web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum price is.

Finally, for those who've written a e book that solves a drawback or presents a brand new method, your book will bring in each site visitors and profits.
